PORTLAND, OR 97205

Membership

The work of UU Ministry for Earth is made possible by the financial contributions of its members, by dedicated volunteer efforts at the national, regional and congregational levels; by programming fees, and by the sale of resource materials.

We are an independent affiliate organization of the Unitarian Universalist Association, and, as such, receive no financial support from the UUA.

UU Ministry for Earth is a 501(c)(3) organization. Your contributions are tax deductible to the full extent of the law.

Benefits of Membership

Your membership:

Formalizes your partnership with other UU's committed to raising ecological awareness.

Enlarges the grassroots voice calling for action on environmental issues within the UUA and among Unitarian Universalists everywhere.

Keeps you updated on activities, alerts, programs in your area, and new resources via our newsletters and email updates.

Entitles you to vote on official organizational policies and to elect the Board of Directors.

Congregational members receive free materials for Earth Day and other activities.

Please complete and mail the membership form or join online.

200+ pages of worship elements including chalice lightings, prayers & meditations, music resources, readings, sermons, sample services, quotations, & bibliography.

Earth & Spirit: Bringing Ecology into Adult Religious Education

Materials on theology and spirituality from major faith traditions; annotated lists of curricula and other resources; syllabus samples, and materials for workshops & retreats.

Nurturing The Spirit-Nature Connection

Curriculum map of UU RE materials and many resources for working with youth.

We Are All Connected Series

7th Principle Butterfly and Creepy Crawlies

Ten RE lessons for children of all ages. Grow in understanding of 7th Principle through worship, stories, crafts, music, and hands-on activities.

Sounds of Nature

Eight RE lessons for up to age 10, including a multi-generational service. The lessons use music, stories and crafts to help us connect with each other, other cultures, and the rhythms of nature.

Global Warming Action Kits, Vol. 1 (2006) & Vol. 2 (2007)

Full of creative ideas and ready-to-use resources. Plays, songs, sermons, community projects, light bulb sales, carpooling, calculating carbon footprints, and more. Dozens of actions, easily adapted to your congregation!

Global Warming: Let's Cool It!

6 informative posters printable in any size.

These resources are on CD and in print and may be ordered online, by mail, or by phone.

Partnering

UUMFE is a bridge-builder, connecting UUs and the wider Earth community to address environmental justice issues and the spiritual dimensions of that work. We partner with individual UUs, congregations, and others to educate, develop and share resources, and enhance effectiveness through collaborative action.

Our partners include:

Member UU Congregations

UUA Green Sanctuary Program

founded by UUMFE, now administered by UUA

UUA Advocacy and Witness

UU Service Committee

Beacon Press

Support UUMFE by entering UUMFE code when you purchase books online.

Northwest Earth Institute

Order discussion course books through UUMFE to support our work.

Carbonfund.org

Offset energy consumption & 7.5% is returned to UUMFE to further our witness on climate change.

350.org.

Join UUMFE call to action, Oct. 24, 2009, International Day of Climate Action.

Honoring

UUMFE strives to make visible the Earth ministry of remarkable UUs. Each year congregations are invited to honor an 'Eco Hero' and to submit a nomination for the UUMFE "Guardian of the Future Award." Details are included in the annual Earth Day Sunday resource.

Vision and Purpose

We envision a world in which all people make reverence, gratitude, and care for the living Earth central to their lives.

Our purpose is to inspire, facilitate and support personal, congregational, and denominational practices that honor and sustain the Earth and all beings.

We affirm and promote the seven principles of the UUA, including:

"Respect for the interdependent web of all existence of which we are a part."
